

CLAUDE NOBS

HERBIE HANCOCK • "If it's never been done before, never heard or seen before, then Claude would always get that music, that technology, and introduce it at the Montreux Jazz Festival. He always looked ahead and was as courageously spontaneous as the very core of the music to which he dedicated his life and was closest to his heart...jazz. His life's work is here, this global palace of joy, culture, and peace."

QUINCY JONES • "Claude was a valued and trusted friend and brother to me for close to forty years, but he was a valued and trusted friend to jazz and the artists who create it for his entire lifetime."

“I’M CELEBRATING
LIFE’S
ADVENTURE”

“I want to celebrate eternity. Celebrating eternity means to me to manifest all of the time as a human being. Eternity presents surprises. I’m celebrating life’s adventure.”

ICAP

The International Committee of Artists for Peace (ICAP) is an organization of passionately committed individuals using the creative power of the arts to bring about a peaceful society. ICAP'S mission is to establish peace and develop peacemakers through the transformative power of art. Its goal is to continue expanding circles of peace and friendship through culture and the arts around the globe.
