

VOICES OF HOPE VOICES OF CHANGE

"How we treat the poor is a reflection of who we are as a people."

ALICIA KEYS

"I believe in humanity and the creativity of the human spirit."

HERBIE HANCOCK

"Music can change the world because it can change people."

"Those who have suffered understand suffering and therefore extend their hand."

PATTI SMITH

VOICES OF HOPE VOICES OF CHANGE

"If you're in this higher condition and you're performing, something transcends the music and reaches to the inside of someone else. It triggers a well of wisdom."

WAYNE SHORTER

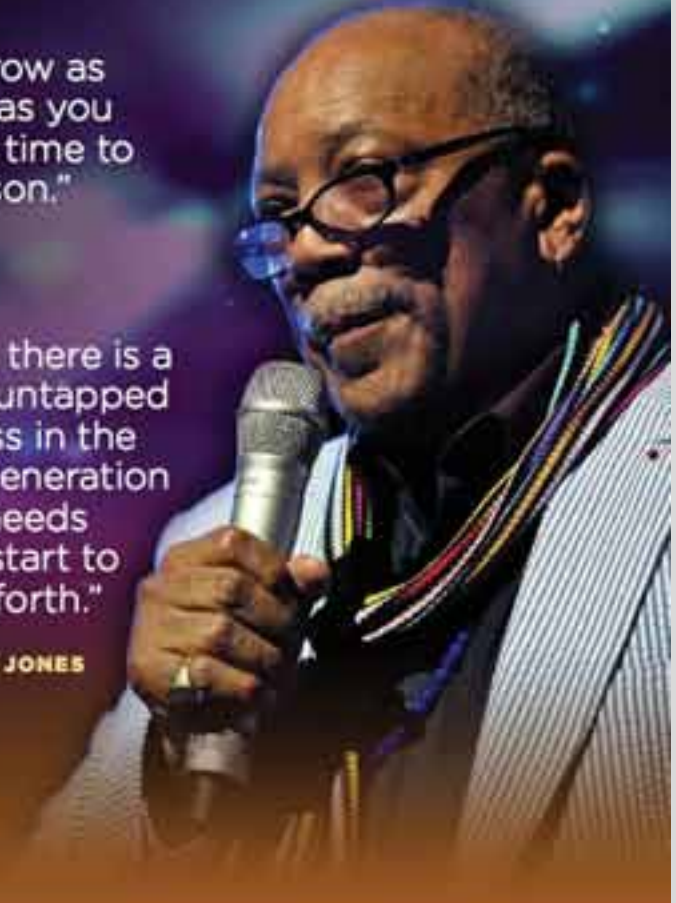

"I believe that I have to use the resources provided by my artistic career in order to tell people about real problems in the real world."

SHAKIRA

"You can only grow as an artist as long as you allow yourself the time to grow as a person."

SADE

"I feel that there is a wealth of untapped greatness in the younger generation that needs a jumpstart to come forth."

QUINCY JONES

VOICES OF HOPE VOICES OF CHANGE

"My parent taught me to be a person with a social conscious — and that what you give is never lost."

ANGELIQUE KIDJO

"I'm going to use my music and my career to talk about things that we should be concerned about."

RICKY MARTIN

"If I can touch other people with my music, maybe help them have a better day, that's wonderful."

ELLA FITZGERALD

"The most powerful weapon you can be is an instrument of peace."

CARLOS SANTANA

ICAP

The International Commission of Artists for Peace (ICAP) is an organization of passionately committed individuals using the creative power of the arts to bring about a peaceful world. ICAP's mission is to awaken hearts and minds through the transformative power of art. Its goal is to continue expanding circles of peace and freedom through culture and the arts across the globe.
